GOES ON
2000-2021

2021 | 22 PERFORMING ARTS SEASON
"THE BEAT GOES ON"

An annual publication of the Schauer Arts & Activities Center, Inc.
147 North Rural Street | Hartford, WI 53027

The Beat Goes On! The staff and Board of the Schauer Arts Center are thrilled to be throwing open the doors and welcoming our patrons into the theater, classrooms, event spaces and our new courtyard.

To say the last year has been unique and challenging would be an understatement but we never doubted we would reach this point. The community support to get us here, and gratitude as patrons return, has been humbling. As we begin to open up, it is obvious that everyone missed the joy, inspiration and socialization that the arts bring to us. Staff, patrons and performers have all expressed the excitement of returning to live performances and we are happy to be the ones to bring that back to the community.

The Schauer Center opened in 2000. Having missed our 20th anniversary year, we are celebrating instead this year with favorite performances from the past 20 years plus new offerings to expand our patrons' experiences. We invite everyone to enjoy the mid-season open house which will show off the Schauer School of the Arts and highlight our talented resident companies. There is much to celebrate this year. 21 years from our start and having survived a world-wide pandemic and year-long shutdown, we are proud to say, The Beat Goes On!

Sincerely,

Mary Brodzeller

Eclectic Mix of Country Rock

While the music made by Perry and the Long Beds has been variously described as 'country folk,' 'roughneck folk,' 'folk-twang,' and Americana, they prefer the description given by an audience member after a benefit concert in Perry's old high school gym: "You sound just like Gordon Lightfoot...only zippier!" Nice—but there are limits. "Zippy or not," says Perry, "when 'The Wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald' comes on the radio, we sit down, shut up, and listen."

Set in that sassy Miami house in 1985, this smash-hit parodies classic Golden Girls moments with puppets! Get set for an evening of cheesecake, laughter, jazzercise, shoulder pads, and the elegant art of the quick-witted put-down. Devoted fans will fondly remember the four girls from Miami, and for the first-timers, this will be a joyful introduction to the brilliance of the series.
