Formed in June of 2000, The Acoustix came to be after Doug and Dave got tired of playing in other bands and wanted to do something more casual and intimate. Using acoustic guitar and congas, the band has found great success in the Milwaukee area. They cover anything from Neil Diamond to AC/DC and can entertain crowds of all ages.

Scotch & Soda offers delightful diversity and color, rich harmonies, in a style all their own. They play familiar acoustic rock tunes, from artists like: Bonnie Raitt, the Eagles, Doobie Brothers, Steely Dan, & America as well as a sprinkling of more obscure artists—like Keb Mo, John Hiatt, Mayer Hawthorne, Todd Schneider, Cas Haley, and Marcia Ball.

Eugene Gruber is a prolific singer and songwriter performing acoustic memories from the 1970s through today. This friendly man in the music scene will help take the edge off with his smooth and balanced vocal attack.

Ryan's brand of jazz is modern and original while paying tribute to the history of swing, bebop, hard-bop and the avant-garde. The Ryan Meisel Trio delivers thought-provoking, dynamic, and spirited shows. Captivating audiences, Meisel expresses the story of his lifelong musical journey through song. Ryan's brand of fiery saxophone playing pushes the group's improvisational limits.

Filled with beautiful family harmonies, skilled musicianship and a love for music, the Siegmann Family will be bringing the best of bluegrass, acapella, acoustic, and southern gospel to the Schauer!

Leave it to the captivatingly chaotic cast of Comicality to blow the roof off a roofless courtyard, and do it as only they can – with an incredible concoction of the funniest tunes of their record-setting SIX YEAR RUN! The award-winning Comicality will leave you howling with laughter...or maybe howling at the moon. Join the court jesters as they hold comedy court in the new cultural courtyard!
